

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JORGE MOLINA-ESQUER,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 08CR00487WQH
CASE NO. 08CV1189WQH

ORDER

HAYES, Judge:

The matter before the Court is the Motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence by a person in federal custody filed by Defendant. Defendant moves the court to modify his sentence on the grounds that he is not able to reduce his sentence through a drug program based upon his deportation status. The Court finds that the issues raised in the petition are appropriate for summary disposition.

APPLICABLE LAW

28 U.S.C. §2255 provides that “A prisoner under sentence of a court established by Act of Congress claiming the right to be released upon the ground that the sentence was imposed in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States, or that the court was without jurisdiction to impose such sentence, or that the sentence was in excess of the maximum authorized by law, or is otherwise subject to collateral attack, may move the court which imposed the sentence to vacate, set aside or correct the sentence.” A district court must

1 summarily dismiss a § 2255 application “[i]f it plainly appears from the motion, any attached
2 exhibits, and the record of prior proceedings that the moving party is not entitled to relief.”
3 Rule 4(b), Rules Governing Section 2255 Proceedings for the United States District courts.
4 When this standard is satisfied, neither a hearing nor a response from the government is
5 required. See Marrow v. United States, 772 F.2d 525, 526 (9th Cir. 1985).

6 RULING OF THE COURT

7 In this case, the record conclusively shows that the Defendant has waived his right to 8 bring a § 2255 motion. In the plea agreement, the Defendant waived “to the full extent of the 9 law, any right to appeal or to collaterally attack the guilty plea, conviction and sentence ...
10 unless the Court imposes a custodial sentence above the greater of the high end of the guideline
11 range recommended by the Government pursuant to this agreement at the time of sentencing
12 or statutory minimum term, if applicable.” (Doc. # 13 at page 3-4.) This waiver is clear,
13 express and unequivocal. Plea agreements are contractual in nature, and their plain language
14 will generally be enforced if the agreement is clear and unambiguous on its face. United States
15 v. Jeronimo, 298 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2005). Pursuant to the plea agreement, the 16 Government recommended a total offense level of 21. Defendant’s criminal history category
17 was IV and the resulting guideline range was 57 to 71 months. The Government recommended
18 a sentence of 30 months as provided in the plea agreement. (Doc. # 9). The Court imposed a 19 sentence of 30 months. (Doc. # 16). Pursuant to the terms of the plea agreement, the 20 Defendant waived his right to collaterally attack the sentence imposed.

21 Finally, the Defendant presents no grounds for relief under Section 2255. The 22 Sentencing Reform Act gives the Bureau of Prisons the responsibility to “designate the place
23 of the prisoner’s imprisonment.” 18 U.S.C. § 3621(b). See United States v. Cubillos, 91 F.3d
24 1342, 1344-45 (9th Cir. 1996). The Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has rejected the 25 assertion that an alien’s equal protection rights are violated when he cannot be housed in a
26 minimum security facility or a community correction center based upon his deportation status.
27 See McClean v. Crabtree, 173 F.3d 1176, 1185-86 (9th Cir. 1999).

1 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 to vacate, set
2 aside, or correct sentence by a person in federal custody filed by Defendant is denied.
